EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

John David Du Wors is a Seattle-based attorney whose legal career spans multiple jurisdictions and has been marked by significant disciplinary proceedings. Originally admitted to practice law in Washington State in 2003, Du Wors subsequently obtained bar admissions in California (2004) and New York (2012). His practice focused on intellectual property, business litigation, employment law, and technology-related matters through his association with Newman Du Wors LLP.

Beginning in 2014, Du Wors' criminal convictions initiated a cascade of professional discipline across multiple jurisdictions, culminating in his disbarment in Delaware in July 2025 and suspension with actual discipline in California in September 2025. Du Wors is currently not eligible to practice law in California and faces significant restrictions on his ability to practice in other jurisdictions. A November 2024 arrest on new assault charges indicates ongoing legal difficulties.

This updated analysis incorporates a comprehensive inventory of the WordPress blog johndduwors.wordpress.com, which has documented Du Wors' conduct since 2012 through court records, civil complaints, and multimedia evidence.

Case Number	In the Matter of John Du Wors, Case No. 17, 2025
Jurisdiction	Delaware Supreme Court

III. CRIMINAL HISTORY TIMELINE

The criminal convictions underlying Du Wors' professional discipline originated from incidents in Bainbridge Island, Washington. Court records from Bainbridge Island Municipal Court document the following criminal matters:<sup>8</sup>

Case No.	Year	Charge	Disposition	Probation End
20704301P	2012	Unlawful Imprisonment	Guilty	—
20704302	2014	Assault (4th Degree DV)	Guilty	8/30/2016
20704303	2017	Hit and Run	Guilty	4/24/2020
20704307	2019	DUI	Guilty	7/30/2024

The DUI and hit-and-run convictions formed the factual basis for Du Wors' Washington State Bar discipline. The Washington Supreme Court's disciplinary order specifically cited Du Wors' false statements to police and his insurance company in connection with the automobile accident and related insurance claim.

IV. DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS TIMELINE

A. Washington State Bar Discipline (2023)

Effective Date: August 24, 2023

Sanction: Six-month suspension

Proceeding: Stipulation to Suspension approved by Washington Supreme Court<sup>10</sup>

Rules Violated:

- RPC 8.4(c) – Dishonesty, Fraud, Deceit or Misrepresentation
- RPC 8.4(d) – Prejudicial to the Administration of Justice
- RPC 8.4(i) – Moral Turpitude, Corruption or Disregard of Rule of Law

Factual Basis: Du Wors stipulated to suspension based on his conduct related to an automobile accident and insurance claim. Specifically, he admitted to committing acts resulting in convictions for hit and run (unattended vehicle) and driving under the influence, making false statements to police, and making false statements to his insurance company regarding both the hit and run incident and the resulting insurance claim.<sup>11</sup>

Counsel:

- Disciplinary Counsel: Marsha Matsumoto, Marina Busse
- Respondent's Counsel: Todd Maybrown
- Hearing Officer: Anthony A. Russo
- Settlement Hearing Officer: Joseph M. Mano Jr.

B. Delaware Supreme Court Discipline (2025)

Effective Date: July 25, 2025

Sanction: Disbarment (unconditional exclusion from admission to or exercise of any privilege to practice law in Delaware)

Case: In the Matter of John Du Wors, Case No. 17, 2025

<sup>9</sup>Anonymous comment on johndduwors.wordpress.com/about (December 1, 2024)

<sup>10</sup>Washington State Bar News, November 2023 Discipline Notices

<sup>11</sup>Id.

Rules Violated:

- Rule 3.3(a)(1) – False statement of fact or law to tribunal (two counts)
- Rule 3.4(c) – Knowingly disobeying tribunal obligation
- Rule 5.5(c)(3) – Unauthorized practice during suspension
- Rule 8.4(c) – Dishonesty, fraud, deceit or misrepresentation (two counts)
- Rule 8.4(d) – Conduct prejudicial to administration of justice (two counts)

Factual Basis: In April 2023, Du Wors sought and obtained pro hac vice admission in Delaware Superior Court. His certification represented that he was not the subject of pending disciplinary proceedings in another jurisdiction. This statement was false: disciplinary proceedings were pending against Du Wors in Washington at that time. Du Wors failed to correct the false certification and subsequently participated in mediation of the Delaware Superior Court case while suspended from practice in Washington.<sup>12</sup>

Procedural History:

Date	Event
April 2023	Du Wors admitted pro hac vice to Delaware Superior Court
August 24, 2023	Washington suspension becomes effective
June 2024	ODC files Petition for Discipline
October 2024	Sanctions hearing before Board Panel
January 2025	Board Panel issues Report
July 25, 2025	Delaware Supreme Court orders disbarment
July 28, 2025	ODC issues press release

Du Wors did not answer the Petition for Discipline. Pursuant to Delaware Lawyers' Rule of Disciplinary Procedure 9(d)(2), all allegations and charges were deemed admitted. Du Wors filed objections to the Board's Report with the Delaware Supreme Court, but the Court upheld the Board's recommendations.<sup>13</sup>

According to the Law.com report, Du Wors disputed the characterization of the sanction as "disbarment," arguing the term is inapplicable to an attorney who appeared pro hac vice and was not a licensed member of Delaware's bar. Du Wors indicated plans to challenge the decision directly and in federal court.<sup>14</sup>

C. California State Bar Discipline (2025)

Effective Date: September 19, 2025

Sanction: Discipline with Actual Suspension

Case Numbers: SBC-23-C-30879, SBC-23-C-30881, 23-C-30941, 23-C-30945

Current Status: Not Eligible to Practice Law in California<sup>15</sup>

E. Notable Blog Comments

The blog's comment section contains significant information, particularly on the "About John Du Wors" page:

Comment 1 – Jason Hadenfeldt (July 21, 2019):

I hope all this comes to a conclusion soon. This man is vile and dangerous. It was my daughter his step daughter who he hospitalized. I have been threatened by him countless times.

The commenter identifies himself as the biological father of Du Wors' stepdaughter referenced in the unlawful imprisonment case.

Comment 2 – Anonymous (January 31, 2020):

Provides detailed Bainbridge Island Municipal Court case numbers and probation dates, confirming the criminal case information documented elsewhere.

Comment 3 – Anonymous (December 1, 2024):

Posts King County booking information for a new arrest on November 28, 2024, including booking number 2024-014914, UCN 11986389, and Assault 4 charge with "Charged Awaiting Trial" status.

F. DMCA Takedown Attempt (December 2015)

Du Wors filed a DMCA copyright notice with WordPress.com on December 5, 2015, seeking removal of his professional photograph. The notice stated:

All pages of this website contain a photograph of an individual, identified as me, John Du Wors.

The photograph was commissioned by, is owned by, and is copyrighted by, my law Newman & Newman, LLP.

The blog operator responded by citing fair use and linking to WordPress's history of defending users against similar takedown attempts.
